

A Fly

It was Friday afternoon. Tom and Mary wanted to choose a place for lunch because it was Tom's birthday. They wanted to choose the best restaurant on the web. Tom said, 'Let's go to Queen's Restaurant because it is the cheapest restaurant.' Mary said, 'Yes! Moon Restaurant is too expensive.' They decided to go to Queen's Restaurant.

Later, they arrived at the restaurant. The waiter gave them a menu. They looked at the menu to find something good. Tom asked, 'Mary, what would you like to eat? I want pasta with meat sauce. It must be so yummy!' 'I want the most popular one and some spicy thing. I'd like chicken curry,' said Mary.

They ordered some dessert too.

Ten minutes later, the food arrived. As they wanted to eat their food, suddenly they saw a fly! They were shocked. Their face turned white because the fly was in their food! 'Oh, no! There is a fly in my dish! How disgusting!' Mary screamed, pushing the food away and waving at the waiter. The waiter came in no time. They told the waiter about the fly. The waiter laughed, 'Oh! This is not a real fly! It is fake. Today is Halloween so we have a Halloween Special! You can see it in the menu.' Mary and Tom understood what happened then. They ate the food happily. They all said, 'It's yummy!' What a happy Halloween birthday!